

NEWSLETTER December, 2021

From the office...

As we head toward the Christmas season, we will be participating in Children's Hospital of Philadelphia's "Pajama Day" on Friday, Dec. 3rd. We ask that each family bring in $5 (or whatever your means permit) for this charity. CHOP's PJ Day uses the funds where they are most needed, to further their mission of saving children's lives. If Friday isn't a day your child attends, you can still participate. Our goal this year is to raise $275.00. Thank you for your support!

Holiday Competition starts December 17th. Each Classroom will be decorating Christmas trees (the small, artificial kind) and voting will be from the 17th through the 23rd. Winning classroom receives a pizza party. Themed trees and ballots will be in the front lobby! Good luck to all our classrooms!

Don't forget about the Scholastic Books. Order on-line and take advantage of the great low prices. Go to Scholastic.com/bookclubhelp. They'll be sent directly to our center. Books always make great gifts!

Just a reminder, we will be closed for the Christmas holidays beginning December 24th through January 2nd. We will reopen on Monday, January 3rd. Remember you are not charged tuition for the week we are closed.

Have a wonderful Christmas!
